

Harris's and Biden's Documentable Lies about Donald Trump's Character

"You shall not bear false witness..." (Exodus 20:16)

"Therefore whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light." (Jesus, in Luke 12:3)

At the recent Vice-Presidential candidate debate on 10/07/2020 between Mike Pence and Kamala Harris, she stated to the audience, *"The President of the United States took a debate stage in front of seventy million Americans and refused to condemn white supremacists. And it wasn't like he didn't have a chance. He didn't do it."*¹

The question of whether Harris's statement was accurate can be objectively established since both Trump's and her word were not only aired before multiplied millions of people, but also officially recorded by the debate officials so as to become a matter of public record. The printed transcript of the relevant portion of the earlier, Presidential debate, is as follows:

Mike Wallace: "Are you willing to condemn white supremacists and militia groups?"

Donald Trump: "Sure."

Wallace: "...and to say that they need to stand down and not add to the violence in a number of these cities as we saw in Kenosha, and as we've seen in Portland?"

Trump: "Sure, I'm prepared to do it, but I would say almost everything I see is from the left-wing, not from the right-wing. I'm willing to do anything. I want to see peace..."

Wallace: "Then do it, sir."

Joe Biden: "Do it. Say it."

Trump: "White supremacists and right-wing militias."

Biden: "Proud Boys."

Trump: "Proud Boys, stand back and stand by. But I'll tell you what. Somebody's go to do something about Antifa and the Left."

The fact that this transcript indicates that Donald Trump answered both of Wallace's opening questions with the reply, "Sure" (in boldface-) indicates in no uncertain terms that he was condemning racism, thereby putting the lie to Harris's assertions. Yet the transcript ought further to raise an obvious question. Since Trump already vocally met Wallace's demands, then why did the latter continue with, "Then do it, Sir"? The audio record instead makes it perfectly plain the immediately after Wallace posed his questions, he proceeded to talk over him by entering into an oration of his own, to the end that he wasn't bothering to listen to Trump's replies to him.²
